Notes for Worship

- ELW – cranberry hymnal (hymns go up to 893)
- ACS – purple hymnal (hymns start at 901)
- Page numbers refer to the numbers at the bottom of the page, usually in the front of the hymnal.
- Gluten-free communion wafers are available upon request. They are individually wrapped to avoid any confusion or cross-contamination.
- Our 8:15 a.m. services are livestreamed to the web via Facebook and our website, where they are archived for later viewing. Leaders and active assistants/participants in the service appear in the livestream. It is also possible that you and/or your children may be seen in our livestream. If you are concerned about this possibility and would like to sit where there is less likelihood of being seen, please sit on the eastern edge pews (closest to the stained-glass windows) toward the front or middle of the church.

APOSTOLIC GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all!

And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Bountiful God, you gather your people into your realm, and you promise us food from your tree of life. Nourish us with your word, that empowered by your Spirit we may love one another and the world you have made, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

WORD

FIRST READING

Acts 16:9-15

⁹During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.” ¹⁰When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

¹¹We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, ¹²and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. ¹³On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. ¹⁴A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. ¹⁵When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home.” And she prevailed upon us.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

Revelation 21:10, 22-22:5

¹⁰And in the spirit [one of the angels] carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

²²I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. ²³And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. ²⁴The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. ²⁵Its gates will never be shut by day—and there will be no night there. ²⁶People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. ²⁷But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb’s book of life.

^{22:1}Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb ²through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. ³Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; ⁴they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. ⁵And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

ELW pg. 102

al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.
Repeat alleluia

Those who love me will keep my word, and my Fa- | ther will love them, * and we will come to them and make our | home with them.

GOSPEL

John 14:23-29

The holy gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

²³Jesus answered [Judas (not Iscariot),] “Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. ²⁴Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

²⁵“I have said these things to you while I am still with you. ²⁶But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. ²⁷Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. ²⁸You heard me say to you, ‘I am going away, and I am coming to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. ²⁹And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

DIALOGUE

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

COMMUNION

All who are baptized are welcome to receive Holy Communion, regardless of church affiliation. Come and receive our crucified and resurrected Lord in the bread and wine of this meal. Grape juice and individually wrapped gluten-free wafers are available from the server by request.

We will gather commitments to the New Life Rising Campaign this weekend, May 21 and 22. Please prayerfully consider how you will our congregation step into the future God has for us.

Music Camp 2022 Registration Now Open!

Music Camp 2022 registration is now open on the St. Luke's website for students entering kindergarten-7th grade. Music camp will be July 25-29, and more information can be found on the St. Luke's website, or by talking to Mr. Schaner.

On-Line Giving

To start giving electronically or make changes to your existing on-line giving, please log on to our website and click on the "On-Line Giving" tab on the far right. You can also fill out the paper authorization form and return it to the church office. Paper authorization forms are available at the Welcome Center. Thank you!

Sarah Circle

Sarah Circle will meet at 1:00pm on Wednesday, May 25 at the home of Pat Nielsen at 107 Eagles Lookout in North Prairie. Please call (262) 392-5600.

Senior Recognition

On Sunday, June 5th we will recognize our graduating high school seniors at our 10:30 worship service, along with our scholarship recipients. Come celebrate with our students!

Summer Pick Up Choir

Do you love to sing, but can't commit to a weekly rehearsal? Do you want to give singing in the choir at St. Luke's a try? Join us on Sunday, June 5th for our first summer pick up choir of the season. We will learn something to sing that morning that we will sing in worship. Warmup will be at 7:45 before the 8:15 worship service. All ages are welcome, and we have a great time. Come make a joyful noise! Stay tuned for future dates, and if you have any questions, contact Michael Schaner, Director of Music Ministries (mschaner@stlukeslutheran.org).

Stand with Ukraine Event

Join us on Saturday, June 4 at 7:00pm, here at St. Luke's for an evening of Ukrainian music, songs, poetry, and dance presented by SOPHIA. Performers are from St. Michael Ukrainian Church and St. Mary's Ukrainian Orthodox Church. Coffee and baked goods will be served before the program, with all proceeds going towards Ukrainian relief efforts. If you would like to volunteer to help, please contact Diane Voit.

Welcome, Children!

We invite children of all ages to be in worship with us. Children can use the Pray-Ground in front of the church on the piano side as a comfortable space to experience worship. If you feel your child(ren) are being too disruptive you are welcome to move into the Chapel.

Are you receiving our weekly Connections email?

Each week we send out an email called Connections. It includes announcements, links, information about worship schedules, community events, and so much more. If you are not receiving it, email Jennifer in the office (office@stlukeslutheran.org) to be added to the email list.

Prayer Ministry

How can we pray for you, a friend or a loved one? Our Prayer Team is here for prayer support during the trials and joys of daily life. If you or someone you know needs prayer for any reason, could use a note of encouragement or get well wishes, or if you have any questions, please contact Laurie at lrohrwasser@stlukeslutheran.org.

Sunday School

May 22 is the last day of Sunday School for the 2021-2022 school year.

Sunday School welcomes children that are between the age of 3 to 12. Sunday School is a space that can include the presence of parents, grandparents, guardians, and mentors. We begin in the sanctuary at 9:30 a.m. after worship with an opening, and then break into small groups for a Bible lesson and activity. Sunday school ends at 10:15 a.m. The children can be picked up near the hospitality area on the main level of the church.

Discipleship Training

May 22 is the last day of DT for the 2021-2022 school year.

Discipleship Training or DT is a ministry that helps our youth confirm their faith. Discipleship Training meets downstairs in the youth room and starts at 9:15 a.m. and ends at 10:15 a.m. Every week the youth dive into their faith through games, Bibles lessons, and sometimes food. This ministry serves the youth in grades seven and eight.

Pentecost: Wear Red to Worship

We will observe Pentecost, the weekend of June 5. Pentecost is the annual celebration of the coming of the Holy Spirit. As is tradition, we invite you to wear red to worship that weekend. Red is the traditional color the Church has used throughout the ages to signify "Holy Spirit events."

Hope Center Again Receiving Donations

Donations to the Hope Center are once again being received. The center has announced that it is returning to pre-pandemic procedures. Clothing and certain furnishings are able to be dropped off by appointment. Call the Hope Center at 262-549-8726.

The ELCA Observed Its 35th Anniversary

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) observed its 35th anniversary on April 30. On this date in 1987, the ELCA constitution was adopted during the opening session of the Constituting Convention in Columbus, Ohio. The ELCA was formed from a merger of three Lutheran churches – the American Lutheran Church, the Association of Evangelical Lutheran Churches, and the Lutheran Church in America. To symbolize the formation of the new denomination, the bishops from the three predecessor church bodies poured water from separate containers into one baptismal font. The Rev. Herbert W. Chilstrom was elected first bishop of the ELCA during the Constituting Convention. He was former bishop of the Minnesota Synod of the Lutheran Church in America. As the church commemorates its history, it also is looking toward the future. ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton spoke of the importance of the "Future Church" priority being rooted in tradition while also being relevant to people who may not know the gospel message of freedom. "In 1522, early in the Lutheran movement, Martin Luther took hold of the new technology of the printing press and modernized communication by translating the Bible into German, the language of the people," she said. "Now, 500 years later, we need to find new ways to speak into the cultural vernacular. "It's not our intent to water down or minimize the gospel word, but to share the good news to make it rooted in tradition and radically relevant. We believe that the gospel changes lives. The gospel not only is a word of grace but it's also a word of liberation." Additional "Future Church" priorities include starting new ministries and engaging with new, young and diverse people.

Our Eastern Europe Crisis Response

Since the beginning of Russia's war against Ukraine on Feb. 24, millions of people have fled the country and are seeking refuge in neighboring countries including Hungary, Moldova, Poland, Romania and Slovakia. There are major humanitarian concerns for both internally displaced people and refugees. Many people fleeing their homes in Ukraine need shelter and basic necessities such as food, water and toiletries. Care for people also includes pastoral and psychological support to address the trauma they've endured.

Lutheran Disaster Response is accompanying our companions in Ukraine, Hungary, Poland, Romania and Slovakia, as well as ecumenical partners such as Lutheran World Federation and Church World Service, in their humanitarian responses to the crisis created by Russia's war against Ukraine. These partners provide refugees with immediate support and supplies such as food, blankets, water and hygiene kits. Your gifts will support people impacted by the war. Gifts designated to "Eastern Europe Crisis" will be used in full (100%) for direct response to assist those affected. To donate, visit <https://community.elca.org/eastern-europe-crisis-response>

GOSPEL MESSAGE

May 22, 2022

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Lifelong Learning

Graduates walk across the stage in cap and gown, receiving diplomas or degrees and pausing for pictures. The celebration marks the end of a time of learning and a transition to a time of doing. New jobs require orientation and more practical learning, but soon the employees are proficient at their work. The sheet metal apprentice becomes the expert journeyman. The accountant sees no more surprises in tax preparation. The retail worker masters the merchandise, the computer system, and dealing with difficult customers.

This movement from learning to knowing is not limited to work. We learn about civic issues and come to know where we stand. We learn about our faith and come to solid beliefs about our values. We learn about ourselves and who we are as people and settle into a sense of our own identity. One could call this process of learning and knowing through experience “lifelong learning.”

Jesus gives us an image of the Holy Spirit as teacher. But the Holy Spirit is not just any teacher; the Holy Spirit can teach us everything! The implication is that lifelong learning is less about information and more about what it means to be human, less about training and more about our relationship with God.

How do we experience the teaching of the Holy Spirit? Perhaps it is in the surprises of grace where someone’s generosity overwhelms us. Maybe it is in the nudges of knowing when an uncomfortable question opens up a place for us to reflect on our prejudices. Sometimes the font or table softens our heart in just the right moment to find a path for forgiveness.

With this promise of the Holy Spirit Jesus also leaves the gift of his peace, that in our learning and growing we may also know the peace that “surpasses all understanding” (Philippians 4:7).
