GATHERING

PRELUDE Partita on O Morning Star, How Fair and Bright Anne Krentz Organ

OPENING DIALOGUE

In baptism our gracious heavenly Father frees us from sin and death.

God joins us to Jesus in Holy Baptism – to his death and resurrection.

We are born children of a fallen humanity;

All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God.

By water and the Holy Spirit, we are reborn children of God.

We are made members of the church, the body of Christ.

1 We are bap-tized in Christ Je - sus, we are bap - tized in his death;
 2 In the wa - ter and the wit-ness, in the break-ing of the bread,
 3 Glo-ry be to God the Fa - ther, glo-ry be to Christ the Son, that as Christ is raised vic - to - rious, we might live a brand new life.

 in the wait - ing arms of Je - sus who is ris - en from the dead, glo-ry to the Ho - ly Spir-it, ev - er three and ev - er one;

And if we have been u - nit - ed in a dread-ful death like his,
 God has made a new be - gin - ning from the ash - es of our past;
 as it was in the be - gin - ning, glo-ry now re-sounds a - gain we will all be re - u - nit - ed, for he lives.

 in the los - ing and the win - ning we hold fast.
 in a song that has no end - ing. . . . A - men.

GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Love of God, and the Communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

BAPTISMAL DIALOGUE

You are the baptized people of God.

We are called by the Holy Spirit to live in faith.

You have been joined to the cross of Jesus Christ forever.

We trust the grace of God.

And what are the five responsibilities of baptismal life?

1. To live with the baptized among God's faithful people.
2. To be with the baptized when the Word is proclaimed the holy supper is shared.
3. To pray the Lord's Prayer, recite the Apostles' Creed, and live by the Ten Commandments.
4. To read the Holy Scriptures.
5. To nurture one another in the Christian faith.

And why do we live out these responsibilities as God's baptized people?

1. So that we may learn to trust God,
2. So we will learn to proclaim Christ through word and deed,
3. So we will learn to care for others,
4. So we might learn to care for the world God made,
5. and so we can learn to work for justice in all the world.

As the baptized people of God, you are set free from sin and death.

You are forgiven and given new life.

You belong to Christ in whom you have been baptized.

Alleluia!

The Holy Spirit empowers you to live in this faith.

May you be strengthened to live out your baptismal covenant with God.

Amen.

WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 49:1-7

¹Listen to me, O coastlands, pay attention, you peoples from far away!

The LORD called me before I was born, while I was in my mother's womb he named me.

²He made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
 he made me a polished arrow, in his quiver he hid me away.

³And he said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified."

⁴But I said, "I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity;
 yet surely my cause is with the LORD, and my reward with my God."

⁵And now the LORD says, who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him, for I am honored in the sight of the LORD, and my God has become my strength ⁶he says, “It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.”

⁷Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, the slave of rulers, “Kings shall see and stand up, princes, and they shall prostrate themselves, because of the LORD, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 1:1-9

¹Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

²To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, ⁵for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind—⁶just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you—⁷so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

John 1:29-42

The holy gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

²⁹[John the Baptist] saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, “Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!³⁰This is he of whom I said, ‘After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.’ ³¹I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.” ³²And John testified, “I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. ³³I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, ‘He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’ ³⁴And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.”

³⁵The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, ³⁶and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, “Look, here is the Lamb of God!” ³⁷The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi” (which translated means Teacher), “where are you staying?” ³⁹He said to them, “Come and see.” They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o’clock in the afternoon. ⁴⁰One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. ⁴¹He first found his brother Simon and said to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which is translated Anointed). ⁴²He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas” (which is translated Peter).

The gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

BAPTISMAL CREED

We believe that God changes us in Holy Baptism.

In the water, God loves us to death and to life again.

As the water washes over us, God joins us to Jesus on the cross.

As water drips from us, God raises us to new life with our Lord.

We are baptized into Christ Jesus.

We belong to Christ in whom we have been baptized.

Jesus says, "Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved; but whoever does not believe will be condemned."

We are baptized and believe that through Jesus, we are forgiven of sin, redeemed from death and all evil, and given eternal salvation – just as the words and promises of God declare.

Clearly, the water does not bring these benefits to us.

It is the Word of God, which is with and alongside the water – and faith, which trusts this word of God in the water – that brings us new life.

For without the word of God the water is plain water and not a baptism, but with the Word of God, it is a baptism, that is, a grace-filled water of life and a "bath of the new birth in the Holy Spirit."

But water is significant.

It suggests the life we are called to live.

Water reminds us that the old person in us with all sins and evil desires is to be drowned and die through daily sorrow for sin and through daily repentance, and that daily a new person is to come forth and rise up to live before God in righteousness and purity forever.

It is as St. Paul says in Romans 6, "We were buried with Christ through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life daily."
